

This is all information that is only necessary if the person is an actor.

All persons involved in this database have this information in common. Some people are both actors and Directors.

This is all director-specific information. This information is only applicable to directors.

All arrangements between directors and their actors on each film. There may be multiple actors and/or directors per film, and the same pair of actors and directors may work on multiple films.

Movie-specific information. Independent of the people who worked on it.